1. A new member

Chapter 1 A new member

Makarov the third master of Fairy Tail was heading back to the guild from a conference about the destructive nature of his guild.

"Stupid kids they could at least try not to destroy everything in sight but then again it wouldn't be Fairy Tail if they didn't." Makarov said to himself. He then noticed a bank surrounded by rune knights and guessed a problem was here. He also noticed someone sneak behind them. Being curious he followed the person and found it was a boy who looked at least 13 to 14 years old.

"Fuck those knights are taking to long guess I have to do this myself again." The boy said to himself. Makarov was surprised this boy was wiling to save the people but smiled nonetheless.

"Perhaps I could help you my boy." Makarov said making the boy turn to face him. Makarov saw he had green eyes brown hair and four scars across his face which worried him that someone this young had such an injury but put it aside for later.

"Who are you?" The boy asked seeing he was being truthful about helping him.

"I am Makarov the third master of Fairy Tail now do you have a plan to save the hostages?" He asked him getting the boy to smirk and told him his plan. Makarov was surprised by how well planed his idea was and they began.

"How much longer till we get out of here man?" One of the robbers asked in annoyance.

"Just shut up." The leader said in a gruff tone. Just then the doors opened and a blond haired woman came in.

"Excuse me could you guys help me?" The woman asked making the men have hearts in their eyes fighting each other. While this was going on Makarov set free the hostages. "Ok fuckers games over." The woman said surprising them as in a flash of light the boy from earlier appeared and attacked them without mercy beating them with his bare hands. When it was over the knights came and arrested the robbers while thanking Makarov and the boy for their help.

"Well that was very impressive tell me what is your name my boy?" Makarvo asked since this boy had the talent to join his guild.

"Sean Ashburn Kruger." Sean said scratching his head while smiling.

"Tell me how would you like to be a part of Fairy Tail?" Makarov asked getting Sean's eyes to widen before he smirked and accepted tired of being alone for so long.

Later they arrived in Magnolia town where the guild hall was seen. Though Sean noticed a lot of fighting inside.

"Uh is this normal gramps?" Sean asked not used to this at all.

"Unfortunately yes it is you'll get used to it though." Makarvo said before a chair nearly hit them. "You fools!" Makarvo yelled in anger growing larger and stopped their fighting and noticed Sean next to him. "Again you've all caused me a lot of trouble. But what the heck anyway lets parts for out new member Sean." Makarvo said making them all cheer.

Sean got his guild mark green colored in the center of his chest before being pulled away by a white haired girl. "Sit here Sean." Said the young girl as other his age sat down next to him.

"So your the new guy names Cana I use card magic." Cana said to him with a smile.

"I'm Grey I use ice magic." Grey said in only his boxers.

"Uh why are you half naked?" Sean asked getting Grey to panic before Sean burst out laughing along with the others.

"Names Lisanna I use take over animal magic." Lisanna said who was the one who dragged him here.

"Names Elfman I use take over beast soul magic." Elfman said.

"Mira and my magic is none of your business." Mira said glaring at him making him raise an eyebrow.

"Ignore her I'm Erza I use requip magic of the knight." Erza said to him kindly while glaring at Mira. Sean for some reason felt her right eye was deferent but let it go.

"I'm Natsu I use dragon slayer magic!" Natsu said in excitement making him chuckle.

"Cool so do I." Sean said surprising them. "I'm assuming you were trained by a dragon right?" Sean asked getting him to nod. "So was I by the star dust dragon and the archfiend dragon." Sean said making Natsu smile.

"Wow so where are they?" Natsu asked hoping maybe they could help him find Igneal.

"They vanished on Jully 7th." Sean said.

"Thats weird so did Igneal." Natsu said.

"Ok ignoring your dragon talk how bout you and me fight scar face." Mira said shocking the guild she wanted to fight the new guy.

"Why should I fight you?" Sean asked her.

"Because you look like the person who would go down so easily if I hit you only once." Mira said making his eyes twitch in annoyance.

"Ok thats it you want to fight me fine lets go." Sean said as they went outside. The others followed as well. Up on the second floor was Luxus Dryer the masters grandson. He could feel the magic coming off this kid and made a hand gesture for his team to follow him.

"Get ready wimp your going down." Mira said but turned her head away so he couldn't see her blush. 'Whys he looking at me like that is he crushing on me?' Mira thought.

Sean cracked his knuckles and both charged at each other. To Mira's shock he punched her with a great amount of force in the stomach sending her back a few feat. She got up on shaky legs as he advanced towards her. She used her take over magic to ease the pain and charged at him again but like last time he punched her in the stomach before grabbing her and threw her into a tree.

"What was that about going down in one hit?" Sean asked in amusement making the guild chuckle. Mira growled and used her full body take over and tried to hit him but to her surprise again he grabbed her arms and head butted her making her dizzy before he chopped her in the neck knocking her out.

"Winner Sean." Makarvo said as the guild cheered for him for his easy win. Sean picked her up and brought her to the infirmary.

"She's going to be ok right?" Lisanna asked him.

"Don't worry I was holding back the whole time otherwise she would have multiple broken bones." Sean said as he left. Mira soon woke up and smirked at him telling him she would beat him one day.

"How is it your that strong you didn't even use any magic?" Grey asked only half dressed again.

"Dude your cloths." Sean said making Grey panic again and looked for them. "I trained my whole life in physical strength so I don't have to use magic." Sean said surprising them which he explained he preferred hand to hand combat rather then magic.

"Wow that must have taken a long time to do." Cana said as she drank a beer.

"Eh not really I'm quick on these things." Sean said before they heard the master.

"Laxus going on a mission are you?" Makarvo asked his grandson.

"Yeah." Laxus said not looking at him.

"Laxus fight me!" Natsu yelled trying to hit him but Laxus sent him into a wall.

"Does he always do that?" Sean asked Erza who nods.

Laxus looked to Sean and held out his hand which Sean took and was thrown up but Sean landed on his feat.

"Hmm looks like gramps found some good talent for once." Laxus said as he and his team left.

"What was that about he has negative emotions." Sean said.

"He thinks most of us are weak and worthless and wants to kick us out saying he will be the next master and turn the guild into a better one a stronger one." Mira said gritting her teeth.

"Don't worry I won't let that happen." Sean said surprising her and the others. "Trust me." Sean said with a grin that put them at ease trusting him completely for some reason.

"By the way where are you going to stay?" Erza asked making him blink before realizing he didn't have a house.

"Shit I forgot about that." Sean said before Erza smiled.

"You can stay with me till you find a place." Erza said surprising many of the women in the guild and the master but he figured it wouldn't hurt since he doubted Sean would cause any trouble.

"Are you sure I don't won't to be any trouble to you." Sean said making her smile more saying it was no problem at all.

"What the hell tin can you cant just make that decision alone!" Mira said to her face.

"What did you call me witch?!" Erza yelled back. Before they could fight Sean pushed them apart.

"Come on you two lets not fight unless a certain someone wants a rematch already." Sean said making Mira pout and stomped away making Erza giggle at him.

"I defiantly am going to like it here." Sean said with a grin already feeling at home in the guild.

Authors note: I've wanted to make this for a while now *anyway this is before Natsu met lucy so a lot of things will change such as Lisanna not dying and a few other things till then see ya.

2. First Quest

Chapter 2 first quest

Sean woke up and found Erza on his chest. Smiling he got up without waking her and looked at his face in a mirror and sighed remembering how and who gave him the scars.

"You ok?" Erza asked as she woke up when he got up and saw the look on his face.

"Its nothing Erza just bad memories." Sean said not wanting to bring them up. "Anyway lets head to the guild I want to see what missions I can get." Sean said with a grin making her smirk.

They soon head down to the guild hall and as soon as they opened the door Natsu charged at him with a flaming fist.

"Oh brother." Sean said slapping him away into a wall. Lisanna scolded Natsu for being so dumb.

"Ah there you are ready for a quest are you?" Makarov asked them.

"Yeah lets see what there is." Sean said before they found one. "Taking down Valcans wait a minute aren't those the perverted monkeys I keep hearing about?" Sean asked getting some of the guild to laugh.

"Yes that would be them." Makarov said having thought the same thing when he first heard of them.

"Sounds easy enough." Erza said as the left.

They soon arrive at their destination and saw a vulcan chasing a woman who screamed for help.

"Oh god." Sean said in annoyance.

"Oooh another pretty girl mine!" The vulcan said running towards Erza.

"Oh no you don't." Sean said as he charged at the damn thing. The vulcan stopped as Sean had punched him extremely hard in the ribs killing it. "Oops my bad." Sean said not meaning to kill the monkey.

"Remember we're here to capture them not kill them ok?" Erza said to him as he scratched his head sheepishly.

"Yeah sorry my bad." Sean said before they heard other women screaming. They soon found the rest of them chasing women left and right.

"Jesus christ ok screw not using magic." Sean said creating a rope of light and caught every Vulcan with ease as they were knocked out.

"Whoa what was that?" Erza asked in awe.

"Light magic I forgot to mention that I can use all magic including yours and Mira's. My father the archfiend dragon told me that all magic can be learned if you have the skill and power to learn it all." Sean said making her smile.

"Well maybe you could teach me a thing or two when we get back." Erza said making him nod. They soon got paid and a little extra for killing one of them.

"Huh that went well. Anyway lets get back to the guild and I know a spell to get us there fast." Sean said as they were engulfed in a sphere of light and vanished. They soon appeared back at the guild hall.

"Oh wow that was quick." Erza said with a grin glade to be back already.

"When you learn all magic you can do anything I just rather use hand to hand combat when I can like with Mira." Sean said before they opened the door.

"Back already you've both have only been gone for 3 hours." Makarov said in surprise.

"Yeah I just wanted to get back so I teleported us here." Sean said.

"Well how did you both do?" Makarvo asked.

"Did good even got paid extra." Erza said before Makarov asked the main dreading question.

"How much was damaged?" He asked in fear.

"None." Sean said shocking Makarov. "What did you really expect that? I only do damage when I use my best magic." Sean said before Makarvo cried in joy of not having any damage on the quest.

"Hey Sean fight me!" Natsu said charging at him.

"Nope." Sean said grabbing his leg and threw him on a table. "Sorry dude but your not going to fight me till you take me seriously." Sean said with a grin causing the others to burst out laughing.

"So scarface how much did you get paid?" Mira asked him.

"Over lets see how much was the quest oh yeah 1,000,000 jewels and 500,000 extra so me and Erza take 750,000 each." Sean said with a grin before Mira handed him a glass of water.

"Ok you and me are going on a quest next time." Mira said.

"Why would he want to work with you witch?" Erza asked before they both attacked each other.

"Oi." Sean said in amusement. "Ok you two thats enough." Sean said pulling them apart.

"Well she started it." Mira said glaring at Erza who glared right back.

"I don't care I'll finish it if I have to." Sean said making them pout and look away from each other.

"Wow they actually stopped for a change." Grey said in amusement.

"Where are your cloths man?" Sean asked getting Grey to freak out and look for them.

"Not again!" Grey yelled.

"Stupid ice perv." Natsu said before Grey smashed head against his.

"What did you call me flame brain?" Grey said in annoyance.

"Guys enough." Sean said towering over them making them shudder in fear.

"Yes sir." They said in fear making the whole guild burst out laughing.

"Hahaha you certainly have a grip on them and you've only been a member for a day." Makarov said in amusement.

"Well someone has to keep them in check." Sean said siting back down.

"Hey by the way who gave you those scars?" Cana asked him since that was what everyone wanted to know.

"From my brother when he tried to kill me." Sean said shocking the whole guild. "Its ancient history I haven't seen that fucker in 8 years." Sean said waving it off.

"Why would he do that?" Erza asked completely shocked someone as kind as him would have a brother like that.

"He was jealous of my power so he tried to kill me but then my parents the star dust dragon and the archfiend dragon saved me and trained me then one day they vanished." Sean said. "Anyway it doesn't matter to me anymore I haven't seen him since then and even if I do he's more then likely in jail." Sean said putting it aside. Just then Natsu and Grey were fighting again. "Oh come on really?" Sean asked as he stomped on their heads.

"OW!" They yelled in pain.

"What was that for?" Natsu asked in anger.

"Do you ever stop?" Sean asked him.

"No now fight me!" Natsu said making Sean sweat drop.

"Fucking hell fine." Sean said as they went back behind the guild to fight.

"this is going to be quick." Mira said dryly.

"Yup." Erza said in annoyance.

"Alright lets get this over with." Sean said.

"Fire dragon roar!" Natsu yelled as fire came out of his mouth. Sean didn't move and the fire hit him making most of the guild gasp in shock. "uh oh." Natsu said as Erza and Mira glared at him.

"NATSU!" They said in unison.

"Hey you done yet." Sean asked making Natsu sigh in relief but his eyes widen when he saw Sean...EATING HIS FLAMES.

"What hey you cant do that only I can!" Natsu yelled in anger.

"Dude I know all magic including yours." Sean said before smashing his fists together. "Now let me show you my power. Star dust dragons roar!" Sean yelled as a beam of light came out of his mouth and hit Natsu who flew back a few feat knocked out.

"Winner Sean!" Makarov said as the guild cheered. Sean smiled and chuckled in amusement before Erza and Mira came beside him.

"What the hell scarface you almost scared us half to death!" Mira said glaring at him.

"Sorry but in my defense even if his attack hurt me it wouldn't last long I'm practically invulnerable to most things." Sean said easing their worries of him.

"Still give us a heads up before you do something like that." Erza said getting him to nod before they went back inside.

The guild was as usual fighting each other but Sean with Erza and Mira beside him just watched.

"Haha I defiantly am going to like it here." Sean said before the guilds doors open and Laxus and his team came in making everyone go silent.

"Tch like always." Luxas muttered under his breath. He then spotted Sean who didn't even look at him instead was just eating some food. "Hey kid." Laxus said getting Sean's attention.

"What is it?" Sean asked.

"I want you to be a member of my team." Laxus said getting the guild to gasp in surprise since they didn't think he would ask someone who just became a member to join.

"No thanks I'm not interested in joining a team at the moment." Sean said before hearing Laxus chuckle.

"I don't think you understand what this means kid." Laxus said smirking since if Sean had taken his offer right away it wouldn't be as fun. " I am going to be the next master of Fairy Tail and after that I will kick all the weaklings out of this guild therefor making it the strongest guild in Fiore. You will be one of the ones I keep when I become master. I don't think you want to lower yourself to these weaklings level." Laxus said with a laugh along with his team. Every member grits their teeth in anger and Natsu being held back by Grey who wanted to punch Laxus. Makarov looked at his grandson sadly gripping his staff tightly wondering where his once kind grandson went.

Sean punched Laxus in the face shocking everyone.

"You better take that back you fucking bastard. The only weakling is you picking on others just for your own enjoyment knowing your the weak one because you have nothing worth fighting or dying for like us." Sean said as he glared at the downed mage who glared right back at him.

"Why you!" Bickslow said trying to punch him but Sean dodged and punched him exptremly hard in the stomach making him cough up blood before he fell down. Freed tried to slash him but Sean to everyones surprise bite down on his sword before spitting it back at his dumfounded face before Sean kicked him in the balls. Evergreen tried to turn him to stone but nothing happened and Sean chopped her in the neck knocking her out.

"Need I say more about you and your team your all weak." Sean said before Laxus charged at him forcing them both outside.

"No don't destroy the guild hall!" Makarov yelled in fear.

Sean punched Laxus in the face again and Laxus shot lighting at him forcing him back a few feat but didn't look affected.

"I'll show you who's weak!" Laxus yelled creating a large sphere of lightening. Laxus forced the sphere down on Sean who didn't move making everyone worried. "Ha who's weak now?" Laxus yelled thinking he's won but his eyes widen when Sean came back up and dusted himself off.

"My turn and this time why don't I use some different magic." Sean said as his body changed as large spikes of some kind came out of his back and his face shaped into a reptile of some kind and a tail appeared behind him as well and grew larger.(As if I really need to let people know what form this is) Everyone stepped back as Sean roared shaking the earth as he did so.

"What the hell is this!" Laxus yelled out as the spiked glowed blue and a stream of blue fire came out of Sean's mouth and struck Laxus and he flew back a 20 feet knocked out cold but still alive. Sean turned back to normal before falling on one leg. Mira and Erza ran up to him.

"Are you alright?" Erza asked in concern.

"Yeah I just need more practice when I use that form." Sean said standing up before the guild cheered for him. "Well that was easy." Sean said making Erza and Mira giggle glad he defended them from Laxus.

Makarov looked at Sean in curiosity having faith he could beat Laxus but the form he took it didn't feel like magic it felt like something else but decided to let it go for now.

Authors note: Yeah Sean kicked his ass and his teams as well. Next Chapter Laxus gives Sean a lot more respect. **

3. S class promotion and old friends

Chapter 3 S class promotion and an old friend

Sean woke up and as usual found Erza on his chest making him smile. Sean has been in fairy tail for over 7 months now. He had become the strongest mage the guild had since the first master. After their first fight Laxus had wanted a rematch but every time Sean beat him but didn't use his transformation he used when he beat him the first time. Sean and Erza had also gotten much closer to one another romantically becoming a couple which was a great shocker to the guild not thinking Erza would have a boyfriend because of her strictness.

Sean had also gotten to know the king of Fiore and his daughter Hisui after a quest from the king to help find his daughters neckless but Sean found out he took it to get his daughter out of her room since she had been in her room since her mother died. Sean had helped her out of her sadness and managed to get her to smile again after so long. The reward was twice as much then the quest said since the king was grateful for his help.

Erza began to open her eyes and smiled at him. "Morning." She said making him smile and both got up and dressed to head to the guild.

"Hey Sean fight me!" Natsu yelled.

"Oh for the love of god. Do you ever give up?" Sean asked making the guild burst out laughing.

"No now fight me!" Natsu said jumping at him but stopped from Erza's deadly glare.

"Natsu not now." She said in a deadly tone making him nod and hid behind Lisanna who giggled at him.

"Finally christ he reminds me of an old friend of mine before I joined the guild." Sean said.

"Well if it isn't the love birds." Mira said in amusement.

"Hey Mira ready for that mission now?" Sean asked since he promised to help her on a quest.

"Yup now come on scarface." She said pulling him out of the guild.

"Alright so the mission is to hunt down a band of thief's from a dark guild sounds easy enough." Sean said as they traveled by train to get there. They soon arrived at the dark guild and saw a lot of mages.

"Well look here boys a bunch of fairy flies." A mage said with an arrogant smirk on his face. Sean noticed they all looked at Mira with perverted smiles making him angry.

"Hey I remember you fuckers you tried to rob that bank seven months ago." Sean said remembering them.

"You! You ruined everything that day now its time you payed boy!" A mage said in anger as they all charged at them. Mira in her demon form attacked them while Sean used his strength to fight them. Needless to say Sean and Mira won without even a scratch.

"Thats it?" Mira asked in disbelief.

"This was a small dark guild Mira come on our jobs done." Sean said as they dragged them to the jails.

Soon both came back to the guild in an instant. Sean and Mira walked through and found Natsu fighting against someone he was familiar with.

"Reznov?" Sean asked with a smile as said man turned and faced him.

"Kruger long time no see man." Reznov said.

"You two know each other?" Erza asked.

"Remember when I said Natsu reminded me of an old friend this is him John Reznov." Reznov had brown hair purple eyes and dressed in black pants a white and blue stripped shirt and a leather jacket.

"Well I heard a rumor of someone who matched your description and came to see it for myself how've you been I haven't seen you in two years Julia gave me an earful to find you." Reznov said making him chuckle.

"Oh I've been good." Sean said putting his arm around Erza who smiled at him.

"Oh so you finally got a girlfriend one of many of I assume." Reznov said before Sean punched him in his stomach.

"Like I said thats not going to happen." Sean said annoyed.

"What is he talking about?" Erza asked giving him a look.

"Ugh one of my old family members once had a huge harem and Reznov constantly tries to encourage it for me." Sean said making Erza blush but then thought of the possibilities. Mira and Cana blushed seeing they still have a chance.

"You make it sound like a punishment thats every mans dream kid." Laxus said in amusement.

"Fuck off!" Sean yelled getting everyone to chuckle. "Anyway wheres Julia?" Sean asked.

"Right here." Julia said coming out from the back room. Julia had brown hair and brown eyes her hair was in a pony tail she had glasses on. She was dressed in black pants a black shirt and black battle sandals.

"Its good to see you both but why are you here?" Sean asked in curiosity.

"To join the guild why else?" Julia said making him smirk.

"So how strong are you guys?" Mira asked.

"Well I'm the strongest of us Reznov is the second and Julia is third." Sean said.

"Fight me!" Natsu said jumping at them but Julia used a water whip to send him away.

"Jeez man calm down Kruger cant you just fight him?" Reznov asked.

"I have and beat him in one hit." Sean said in annoyance.

"Anyway Sean I've decided to just promote you to S rank status since you've clearly qualify." Makarov said shocking the whole guild even Laxus.

"Pass." Sean said making the whole guild even more shocked. Mira and Erza grabbed him and shook him.

"Are you insane Sacrface that was your one chance to advance take the position now or I'll kick your ass!" Mira said.

"The hells wrong with you don't you want to become an S class mage?" Erza asked.

"Whoa whoa easy both of you its not that I don't want the rank but I'm not going to just take the easy way it wouldn't be fair to everyone else. Sure I beat Laxus but that doesn't mean I should take the position that way." Sean said getting them to understand while Laxus gave him an annoyed look.

"Hahahahaha. I figured you would say that so in order to promote you in a fair way I've decided to ask him here to test you." Makarov said.

"Him?" Sean asked before noticing everyone pale. "What is it who's this guy he's talking about?" Sean asked.

"He's talking about Gildarts the ace of Fairy tail." Laxus said as he wasn't as intimidated by him as others.

"Huh how come I haven't seen him before in last seven months?" Sean asked.

"He takes the missions that take months if not years to complete." Mira said.

"Looks like you got your work cut out for Kruger." Reznov said in amusement.

"Maybe I might finally find someone who can go head to head with me." Sean said before they heard alarms. "Ok whats with this?" Sean asked before the whole town split in half.

"What the fuck!" Reznov said in shock. "Why did the whole fucking town split in half?" Reznov asked in shock.

"Just a precaution he has terrible control of his magic so this way he doesn't damage anything in the town like last time." Makarov said in embarrassment.

"Sheesh." Sean said.

Soon Gildarts arrived and smiled at the guild. "Hey master long time no see." Gildarts said smacking Natsu away who tried to hit him.

"Yes hows your mission going?" Makarov asked the ace of the guild.

"Almost done...Wow theres a lot of new faces here." Gildarts said making almost everyone sweet drop.

"Why are the crazy ones always the strongest ones?" Reznov asked Sean who sighs.

"Yes anyway this is the boy I asked you here to test to see if he's ready for S class." Makarov said pointing to Sean.

"Oh yeah alright kid lets head outside and see what you got." Glidarts said waling into a wall that shattered.

"Use the door!" Makarov yelled in annoyance.

"Oh boy so he uses crash magic doesn't he?" Sean asked getting Erza and Mira to nod. "This should be fun." He said with a grin heading outside.

"Try not to underestimate him he's a lot stronger then he looks." Erza said worried about him. Sean simply smirked and kissed her making her blush but smiled.

"Trust me he's the one going to underestimate me especially when I use the power I used on Laxus in our first fight." Sean said making her smirk.

"Good luck." She said heading to a safe distance.

"Well I'll be I never thought Erza would have a boyfriend." Gildarts said in amazement.

Sean smirked and got in position just as a barrier surrounded them.

"What the hell is this?" Sean asked.

"A barrier to protect the town." Gildarts said and charged at him with a fist aimed at him. Sean caught it which surprised him.

"Lets see if you really are the ace of the guild." Sean said with a smirk throwing him into a tree that broke apart.

"Your stronger then I though maybe I should use a little more of my magic then I thought at first." Gildarts said impressed so far. His body began to glow somewhat as Sean and the others felt his power increasing.

Gildarts using his magic fired a blast of crash magic at him but Sean dodged and used fire dragon roar on him but he didn't look affected.

"I forgot crash magic weakens most attacks." Sean said remembering this.

"Yup now then." Gildarts said as he attacked him again but Sean jumped and drop kicked him forcing him away a few feet. Sean charged again but this time Gildarts hit him in the chest which made him nervous. "Oh shit." He said as Sean flew back and his shirt was ruined as his attack left wounds on his chest. "Damnit I overdid it again." Gildarts said but to his and the others shock Sean's wounds began to heal almost instantly.

"Ok that hurt." Sean said standing up showing many his chest and back. Many of the female guild members blushed and squealed at his very muscled body. Erza Mira Cana Levy Laki and Evergreen blushed as well and noticed on his back were three tattoos one was a giant black dragon the other two were large lizard like one they saw when he first fought Laxus the second one was similar but had a longer and larger head and two of the spikes were bigger on its shoulders.

"Hey isn't one of those the thing he turned into to beat Laxus?" Mira whispered to Erza who nods planning on getting some answers when this is over.

"Wow I'm even more impressed healing abilities like that are kinda of rare." Gildarts said.

"Like I said I'm in invulnerable to most attacks and even if I am hurt I'll just heal. Now I'm going to use on you what I used on Laxus." Sean said as his body changed to the same giant monster when he beat Laxus but since the barrier was around them he wasn't as large just large as the guild.

"What the hell is that? Thats no take over magic!" Gildarts said in shock. Sean whipped his tail at him forcing him back. Shaking out of his shock Gildarts used all of his magic and fired at him but Sean fired the same stream of blue fire at him and to everyones shock it pushed back his attack. Sean's body began to change again and turned into the other lizard creature he had on his back and the spikes glowed and a green stream of fire came out of his mouth and pushed Gildarts back till he was thrown into the barrier and knocked out cold.

"Oh my god!" Bickslow said in shock since not even Laxus could beat Gildarts.

"How much power does he have?" Grey asked.

"Hey dude where are your cloths?" Reznov asked making Grey panic.

"Not again!" Grey yelled in annoyance.

"Hmmm I wonder." Makarov said to himself.

"What is it gramps you know something?" Laxus asked.

"I think I know what those forms he uses are." Makarov said.

"Nice going Scarface." Mira said trying not to eye his chest.

"Was there really any doubt?" Sean asked getting her and Erza to giggle.

"Sean tell me those forms you took are those spirits?" Makarov asked getting him to freeze.

"How did you?" Sean tried to say since this was a private secrete.

"The forms you took and the images on your back gave it away." Makarov said.

"Gave what away?" Erza asked since Sean seemed to be hiding something.

"There are mages that have spirits sealed inside of them people called them guardians but for the past few hundred years they became less common and very rare and most only have one spirit but he's the first to have three very powerful ones as well I might add." Makarov said shocking the whole guild.

"Why didn't you tell us thats awesome?" Natsu said but paled from Sean's glare.

"Care to tell them what the more idiotic people thought of them that started to change that." Sean said to Makarov

"What do you mean?" Mira asked since she didn't understand.

"Unfortunately the magic council saw them as weapons and tried to draft them into the army this caused some of them to leave without a trace. That was hundreds of years ago the King during that time made sure that it would never happen again by restricting their power and influence and executed the council during that time as an example to any other who tried to do the same." Makarov said shocking them.

"So you didn't say anything out of fear?" Cana asked.

"No I just didn't want the rest of the world to know since like he said I'm the first to have three that makes me a prize to certain people who would want to exploit that power I trust you guys but people talk though." Sean said making them understand.

"Well they won't know I assure you but still try to keep those powers hidden only as a last resort." Makarov said getting him to nod. "But in any case you've just become an S class Mage!" He said in pride making the whole guild cheer while Sean rolled his eyes in amusement.

"Oh boy I can already tell Natsu will want to fight me even more now." Sean said and said mage jumped trying to hit him but Erza and Mira glared at him making him run.

"Now then lets celebrate." Mira said making him chuckle.

4. Brother vs Brother

Chapter 4 Brother vs Brother

18 months later

Sean walking towards the guild hall had a large sack over his shoulder. It had been 18 months since Sean become and S class mage and he and Erza after he took on a few high paying S class missions had decided to build a larger house since she needed to have some room to put her armors away since she bought a lot. The house was a large mansion like one that could fit over a hundred people. It in all honesty had everything people wanted an indoor and outdoor pool and hot tub all the kind of things rich people usually enjoy in life. Sean had way more then enough money because of the amount of jobs he took and he had enough to retire for life but preferred to work rather then not.

Erza had also become and S class mage as well 4 months ago during the last trial while Mira didn't but Sean cheered her up. Erza also to his surprise had decided to let him have more then one lover saying she knew others in the guild cared about him and wanted them to feel loved rather then just jealous. Sean not seeing a problem in her logic went with it. So far in this little love group were Mira and Cana who he could see had a thing for him. A month ago they went to an expensive resort for a romantic vacation. All three of them had sex with him on different days during the time there and loved every minute of it.

Also a about a year ago Natsu found an egg that he thought was a dragons egg but when it hatched it was a blue cat with wings which really surprised him. They named the cat Happy and in truth the little fur ball was really annoying some times like Natsu.

Sean opened the doors and as usual Natsu tried to fight him.

"Sean fight me now!" Natsu yelled at him.

"Oh for the love of...No!" Sean said making Natsu annoyed and stormed off with Happy.

"Sheesh Kruger does he ever give up?" Reznov asked drinking some Vodka.

"No I've known him longer then you I just don't understand why he does these things." Sean said rubbing his head.

"Maybe if you beat him really bad he'll stop for a small time." Cana said serving the guild.

"Yeah hey wait a minute wheres Mira she's usually serving not you?" Sean said making her smirk.

"She's actually on a job right now at the beach." She said not telling him the whole story.

"Alright I'm off then." Sean said. As soon as he was gone Cana giggled which caught Reznov's attention.

"Whats so funny?" He asked.

"Oh I'm not telling." She said making him shrug his shoulders and went back to his drink.

Sean on the beach was looking for Mira when he noticed a group of people surrounding something.

"The hell?" Sean asked and went to see what they were looking at. Sean pushing through them came to an amazing sight. Mira was dressed in a sexy Bikini two piece that showed her body well. After a photo shot she looked to Sean and widen her eyes but then smiles.

"Like what you see Scarface?" Mira said teasingly.

"Do I really need to answer that?" Sean asked making her giggle.

"Hey buddy get lost we saw her first." Said a thug dressed in black cloths along with his two frinds.

"Yeah well she's my girlfriend so fuck off." Sean said making the man growl and tried to punch him but Sean grabbed his arm and threw him in the ocean a mile out. The other two ran away in fear.

"What are you doing out here anyway Sean?" Mira asked getting her regular cloths on.

"Cana said you were out here on a job but she didn't tell me you were modeling. How long has this been going on?" He asked making her giggle before pulling him into a kiss.

"A couple months besides it has great benefits like keeping the outfits or getting some for free care to see some?" She asked seductively making him chuckle before he picked her up bridal style making her burst out laughing.

"As tempting as that is lets head back to the guild." Sean said before jumping to the guild in one jump.

"Back already Kruger?" Reznov asked.

"Yup. Cana you never told me she was modeling." Sean said making her giggle.

"Oh like you didn't approve of what you saw." Cana said making him smirk.

"True hey where is Erza?" Sean asked not seeing her.

"Oh she went on a quest with Julia a couple hours ago they should be back soon." Reznov said.

"Alright might as well take another one then." Sean said going to the board and saw one in particular. "Hey Cana come here." Sean said getting her attention and saw the quest was to deliver a file the mermaid guild but needed a female to do it.

"What you want me to come with you?" She asked.

"You and Mira whens the last time the three of us even worked together?" Sean asked getting her to nod and all three left. Soon they arrived at the guild. Mira knocked and a woman answered the door.

"May I help you?" The woman asked.

"Yeah there was a quest to deliver this file to you guys." Sean said handing her the file.

"Yes but it was for a woman to deliver it." The woman said glaring at him.

"I know this was my idea to spend time together as a team." Sean said before they heard a scream inside and the doors opened the revel five men in the guild that most have transported themselves in by magic. One of the men had a girl held by her neck in his hand gasping for air.

"Oh no not now." The woman said in fear but felt a reassuring hand on her shoulder and saw Sean glaring at the men since he knew them.

"You fuckers again!?" Sean yelled in anger.

"What why is it everytime we plan something your always there?" One of the dark mages said in anger.

"Let her go." Sean said in a dangerous tone making the man tremble in fear and let her go by accident and she ran towards him. Sean looked towards Mira and Cana and told them to let him handle this. The men trembled in fear as Sean beat them to a bloody pulp. Soon Sean had them outside and tied up waiting for the Rune Knights to take them.

"Are you alright." Sean asked the girl who was trying to get her breath back. She nods making him smile before looking towards the woman from earlier. "Has this happened before?" He asked getting her to nod in shame.

"Our master is usually the one to stop them but she's at a conference right now they've must have known." She said in shame.

"Don't be so hard on yourself. Whats your name?" Sean asked.

"Kagura." Kagura said before he handed her a sword which confused her.

"You have a potential that remains dormant because you haven't given yourself a purpose to become strong heres one for you. Train to protect everything you care about your friends family and guild mates even the innocent." Sean said as the three began to leave.

"Wait!" Kagura said making them stop. "Will we ever see you again?" She asked in hope making him smile.

"I'll come by and help you train along with anyone else every now and then." Sean said as they vanished.

Kagura looked at the sword Sean gave her and smiled deciding to do as he said and become stronger.

"Well that was nice of you." Cana said as they arrived back at the guild.

"She reminds me of some of the people I helped before I joined the guild." Sean said as they entered.

"There you are." Erza said walking up to them.

"Hey Erza." Sean said kissing her forehead making her smile.

Just then Macao ran in breathing heavily.

"Jeez Macao whats gotten into you man?" Reznov asked.

"The king and his daughter are on their way here." Macao said making everyone minus Sean Reznov Julia Erza Cana and Laxus to freeze before the frozen members of the guild panicked and began cleaning the guild.

Soon Sean Erza Cana Mira Makarov and Laxus were outside the guild waiting for the king.

"Why do I get the feeling you have something to do with the king coming here?" Laxus asked Sean who shrugs his shoulders.

"Hey I'm just as surprised as you man." Sean said since he wasn't expecting the king to come here.

Few minutes later the king and his escort arrived.

"Sean its good to see you my boy." King Toma said.

"Like wise sir I'm honestly surprised that you came all the way out here." Sean said making the king chuckle.

"Oh I'm not here just for a social visit but I will tell you more later right now I need a drink." The king said making some chuckle.

Hisui stepped out of their carriage and smiled at Sean.

"Hello Sean." She said.

"Hello princess its good to see you again." Sean said before she engulfed him in a hug.

Soon they soon went inside and the King explained that Sean had been selected for a trial to take a position greater then the ten wizard saints.

"What position I thought the Ten wizard saints were the best." Sean said in confusion.

"Yes thats true however though ever few generations only one mage is selected for this position even greater then them. The title is the guardian of Fiore only 4 people in the past have ever taken the title. Myself and my council decided it was time to pick a new one and you have been selected for the trial. With this position your allowed to step in if the magic council does something unfair or even so much as arrest them if you have a good reason to" Toma said surprising the whole guild.

"Wow I'm honestly shocked. What exactly do I have to do?" Sean asked.

"I cant tell you exactly since even I don't know All I can tell you is where to go and it will be explained there." Toma said making Sean nod.

"Alright then when do I start?" Sean said with a smirk.

"Next week a guid will take you to the location." Toma said.

"Alright then I say we celebrate for this occasion!" Makarov said proud one of his youngest mages had been chosen for this. The whole guild cheered while Sean looked sheepish.

"Honestly this place gets more famous because of you at this rate will need a bigger guild hall with all the new members joining." Mira said in amusement making him chuckle. While he sat down with his friends and Hisui a man entered the guild and approached the master.

"May I help you?" Makarov asked.

"Yes I would like to join the guild if you would let me." The man said.

"May I ask your name?" Makarov asked but would soon regret that question.

"Freddy Kruger." As soon as he said that a glass shattered in Sean's hand. Everyone turned and saw him trembling in fury and turned slowly and faced his brother who had a cruel smirk on his face.

"Oh so the rumors were true you are still alive little brother." Freddy said.

"GET OUT." Sean said in an extremely dangerous and angry voice which shocked the whole guild but remembered his story of what his brother tried to do.

"Oh whats this no hello? No how've you've been?" Freddy said mockingly.

"I'M WARNING YOU FREDDY GET OUT NOW WHILE YOU STILL LIVE." Sean said trying to keep his anger under control.

"Your not welcome here he told us what you tried to do to him." Erza said trying to defend her boyfriend.

"Oh who asked your opinion little whore?" Freddy said before Sean tackled him to the floor.

(Enter Freddy in the real world from freddy vs Jason soundtrack here)

Sean punched Freddy directly in the face before kicking him extremely hard in the ribs throwing him out a wall and out of the guild. Freddy groaned for a second before charging at him trying to hit him in the chest with his gloved hand that had four claws on it. Sean dodged before punching him in the stomach. Sean grabbed him by the neck and threw him into a large rock. Freddy glared and vanished before stabbing him in the shoulder making Sean groan in slight pain before grabbing him again and head butted him.

"You still fight for the weak you worthless brat just like mom that is why you lose." Freddy said making Sean roar in rage and threw him into some trees. Sean charged at him again and grabbed him by the neck and threw him back down in a large rock and delivered punch after punch into his face before Freddy vanished again and stabbed him in the left side of his leg. Sean jumped and spin kicked him into a tree before Sean breathed blue fire at him. Freddy took the hit and fired lighting at him making Sean groan in pain.

Freddy's body began to change into a monster. He took on the form of a white monster(I'm not good at describing this one so just look up monster X from godzilla final wars). Sean growled and changed as well to his more preferred spirit form and roared at him. Freddy charged and jumped spinning hitting Sean in the face with his tails. Sean's spikes glowed and the stream of blue fire came out of his mouth and hit him in the center of his chest making him roar in pain.

"Master I thought you said Guardians were less common now!" Evergreen said fearful for her crush.

"Freddy is no guardian that is no spirit its a demon known as Keizer

I always assumed it was a myth but apparently not." Makarov said glaring at the monster harming one of his children.

Sean roared as he smacked his tail at Freddy's legs making him lose balance and fall down. Sean breathed his blue fire at him again but this time lighting came out of the eyes of Freddy hit his attack preventing their attacks from hitting the other. Sean growled and charged at him again and as he continued to push him he failed to notice they were heading over the cliff. When they went over to cliff both roared as they went in the ocean water.

"NO!" Markarov yelled as they all went to the cliff to find them. Looking at the water all they saw were air bubbles and waves before a large geyser of blood came out of the water.

(end song here)

"Sean!" Erza yelled in fear. For a few seconds nothing happened till Sean in his human form came emerged from the water and went to the rocks of the cliff gasping for air and climbed back up to the others. Sean was pulled up by Laxus and Freed and panted in exhaustion.

"Wheres your brother?" Laxus asked.

"Don't know probably dead if all that blood is any indication." Sean said before Reznov and Julia helped him up. One thing was certain all of the magical world would be looking for Freddy if he was alive and bring him to justice for his crimes.

Authors note: Yes a new chapter I decided not to make Erza pregnant yet since it would mean less sex and I'm pretty sure you guys don't want that. Also another addition to the harem would be Wendy but 17 years old instead of 12. next chapter Sean leaves for his trial for the position of *Guardian of Fiore till then see ya.

5. New position

Chapter 5 New position

Erza woke up and found Cana and Mira in bed with her and sighed since one person was missing. It had been 8 days since Sean and his brother fought and 3 since he left for the trial for the rank of the guardian of Fiore. She knew he would come back but still not waking up with him made her feel empty inside. About to get up she was pulled back down by Mira who hugged her to keep her from leaving and blushed from feeling her naked breasts on her naked back.

"Don't go not yet just a few more minutes" Mire said sleepily. Erza smiled and turned around and hugged her closer smashing their large breasts together making them moan. Cana woke up and pressed her breasts on Mira's back making her moan from having their breasts on her. This wasn't the first time they've done this. The first time they were all drunk 3 months ago and just went with it.

Mira pulled Erza into a lust filled kiss making both of them moan as their tongues fought for dominance. Cana licked Mira's neck making Mira shudder in pleasure before Cana cupped her breasts and played with them. Erza pulled Cana closer making her moan as her breasts smashed tighter into Mira's back. Mira placed her hands on Erza's ass and dug her fingers into her flesh making Erza moan more.

"Lets take this somewhere more hot." Cana said making them smile.

Soon all three of them were in the steam room. Cana on her stomach had her ass played with by Mira while Erza kissed her neck. Erza feeling daring sat down in front of Cana showing her wet pussy to her face making Cana smirk before grabbing her hips bringing her closer and licked her lips before attaching her mouth over her pussy making Erza gasp in pleasure. Mira getting more turned on by their acts put on a strap on and thrusted into Cana who moaned more into Erza.

Erza grabbed her breasts and played with them making her groan in pleasure before she felt Mira grab her head and pulled her into a kiss making her eyes clouded with lust. Cana screamed into Erza as she came on the strap on making Erza come as well from the vibrations from her yell. Erza fell into Mira's arms panting in bliss.

"This honestly isn't as fun if he isn't here." Mira said making them nod.

"I blame the king for this but I cant blame him for choosing him for the trial lets just hope he comes back soon." Cana said before standing up and smacked Mira's ass making her giggle. As she left Mira noticed Erza was holding a neckless Sean had given her when they first started dating. The neckless was a heart shaped locket that inside had a small picture of them on their first date.

"He'll come back he always does." Mira said making her nod and pulled her into a kiss before heading out of the steam room.

Now heading to the guild Erza first entered and as usual everyone was fighting each other.

"Oh brother." Cana said dryly.

"Hey there you guys are I thought you would be in your rich home." Reznov said in amusement.

"Hey just because Sean spoils us doesn't mean we're going to live in that place forever and never come out." Mira said going in the back to serve the other guild members.

"Speaking of Kruger I just heard from one the kings messengers saying he should be back soon from completing the test." Reznov said making them smile.

"Good to know how long till he gets back?" Cana asked drinking a beer she ordered.

"He should be back now but my guess is he's taking his time to enjoy the sights since he's in the more northern parts of the country." Reznov said.

"I did actually." Sean said entering the guild and to everyones surprise he had a cast on his right arm.

"What the hell happened to you?" Reznov asked.

"I uh was attacked on my way back by the dark guild of Tartarus fortunately I won but damn those guys are no joke." Sean said surpassing them.

"Did they say why they attacked you?" Makarov asked since one of the three top dark guilds attacking one person was troubling.

"No I never got the chance cause something else also attacked me as soon as I beat her. A dragon named Acnologia." Sean said making the master narrow his eyes knowing that name anywhere.

"Where is it maybe I could ask him where..." Was as far as Natsu got before Sean glared at him.

"Natsu you don't understand this dragon had no intention of talking it tried to kill me. The battle lasted for hours I'm lucky enough I got away alive that dragon is pure evil trust me. That fucking thing busted my arm tried to tear off my leg and almost gutted me. Igneal and my parents may be one thing but he only cares about killing. Even I couldn't kill him the best I did was wound it greatly before I managed to get away." Sean said in total seriousness.

"So what do we do then?" Levy asked in slight fear since if he couldn't kill this thing who could.

"Nothing in all honesty it looked surprised to see me I don't think it was expecting to see any human or anything at all to be near it. The best we can do is remain calm and ignore it." Sean said making them see his point.

"But what if he knows where Igneal or your parents are don't you at least want to find them?" Natsu asked.

"Ay sir." Happy said agreeing with his friend.

"Of course I do but you won't find out from him I don't even think he's still there. Just relax no good will come from going on a wild goose chase Natsu." Sean said making him sigh and gave up.

"Well at least your home and alive thats all that matters in my view." Makarov said before the largest grin came to his face. "AND NOW FAIRY TAIL IS THE NUMBER ONE GUILD BECAUSE OF YOU MY BOY YOUR A GOLD MINE!" He yelled in absolute pride since Sean now had the greatest title in Fiore. The whole guild cheered remembering why he left in the first place. Sean smirked and rubs the back of his head in modesty.

"Christ kid you've only been here for 2 years and the whole guild is famous even more then before." Laxus said from the second floor.

"Oh come on its not just me you know." Sean said in embarrassment.

"Whatever you say Scarface." Mira said making him chuckle in amusement.

"Hey put some cloths on ice freak!" Natsu yelled.

"Shut up dragon boy!" Grey yelled in just his boxers.

"Oi come on guys give it a rest." Erza said.

"Shut up!" They both yelled hitting her in the face and everything freeze.

"Ooooh nooooo. Please tell me they did not just do that?" Sean asked.

"Yes they did." Laxus said smirking knowing exactly what was about to happen.

"You idiots are so dead." Mira said as she and Cana got behind Sean.

"Um Erza?" Grey and Natsu asked in fear before she opened her eyes and glared at them. They both shuddered in fear.

"Die!" She yelled beating them to a bloody pulp.

"Oooh thats going to leave a mark." Reznov said drinking his Vodka.

"Please have mercy!" Grey begged.

"Some one help!" Natsu yelled.

"Ok thats enough." Sean said walking calmly over to them and pulled Erza off them and held her shoulders making her calm down but she still glared at them making them freeze in fear before running off.

"Those two give me such a headache." Erza said rubbing her head.

"True but it is amusing half the time when they do this." Sean said making her smile slightly.

The party started again and Sean told them the trial was to fight the previous guardians who have been copied into a temple to test the next guardians of the country.

"Wow it must have been difficult fighting off the past guardians all at once." Levy said in amazement.

"Not really it went by really quick for me." Sean said laying back.

Levy smiled at his carefree attitude and was really trying to work up the courage to be a part of his group but feared rejection because of her small chest compared to Mira Erza and Cana. Said girls pulled her away for a second while he talked to the others.

"You want to be a part of our little love group don't you?" Cana asked with a grin making Levy blush.

"Um well...yes but lets face it compared to you guys I have nothing on my chest to make me attractive." Levy said in embarrassment.

"Oh come on you really think he cares about breasts he only cares about us for us not our bodies thats just a bonus." Mira making her blush but still was to shy to admit it to him so they formed a plan.

Sean arm wrestling with Elfman completely unaware of their conversation before slamming Elfman's arm down making him sulk while Sean laughed.

"Give it up wimps you cant beat me might as well call me the hercules for my strength." Sean said laughing before the guilds doors slam open and to everyones shock Freddy Kruger was there glaring at Sean who glared right back.

(insert Hi-Finesse Visionary song here)

"They'll be calling you dead when I'm through with you little brat!" Freddy said vanishing and stabbed Sean in the stomach making him growl and grabbed him by the neck and threw him out the guild before jumping out after him.

"So you are still alive but when I'm done with you there will be noting left to confirm your existence in life." Sean said as the dark cloud sent rain and lighting down at them. Freddy fired lighting at him but Sean absorbed the attack making him stronger and pulled out the ground from under him making him fall down as Sean picked up a large chunk of the ground and threw it at him burying him before Freddy came out and stabbed Sean in the chest making him groan in pain and pulled out his knife gloved hand and threw him into a tree.

"Not this again I thought he was dead the first time." Laxus said having enough of this nut job.

"As did I but those who contain demons like this are said to be difficult to kill he must have ran away after their first fight to heal." Makarov said not liking that fact that this monster was still alive.

"Well why aren't we doing anything to help?" Natsu asked in anger.

"Ay sir he cant win alone." Happy said.

"Because this is his fight Natsu and he doesn't need help." Erza said making him growl but understood.

Sean punched Freddy extremely hard into some trees before he kicked him in the ribs hearing them crack. "Your weak." Sean said before grabbing his head and slammed him into a large rock making Freddy groan in pain. "Worthless." He said tearing off his left arm making Freddy scream in pain before Sean kicked him a few feet away from him. "Nothing but a worthless mistake that should never have been born." He said before smashing his foot on his head making him groan in pain.

"Your the weak one little brat thats why I tried to kill you that night you didn't deserve to live your to soft." Freddy said mocking him.

"And yet I have power to remake this world in my image my own world but then again heres the thing of all the things I hate you for I'm grateful you tried to kill me that night otherwise I might not have had the life I have now or the people I love now. For that you have my thanks and will be given a swift death for that." Sean said before grabbing his neck and squeezed him very tightly. Sean summoned a silver blade and aimed it at his heart.

"Maybe I was wrong. Maybe your not soft." Freddy said before gasping in pain as Sean sent his sword into his heart and bleed out before finally dying. Sean grabbed the body and threw it miles out into the ocean.

(End song here)

Erza Mira Cana and Levy approached just as he fell down completely drained from his fights today. They rushed and brought him inside.

"He's completely drained he must have lost a lot of magic today my suggestion is to just take him home with you and let him rest for now." Makarov said making them nod and took him home along with Levy deciding to put their plan into action.

Sean woke up and saw it was night and still raining and lighting outside and looked down and saw Erza Mira and Cana in bed nude and to his surprise and delight Levy was in bed with them as well also nude making him smile brushing her hair making her smile before he leaned down and kissed her head making her smile before he laid back down and went to sleep again.

Authors note: Alright another chapter. Also to the one who said Erza was 12 or 13 she's not she's 16 years old now you really think someone would get pregnant that young use your head man. I decided to finish off Freddy for good this chapter. Next chapter Sean saves Mira and her sister from their brother who lost control on her first S rank mission and maybe Lisanna will join their group.
